Speaker 1 I work in a big hotel and I welcome people when they arrive and help them if they have any problems, with their room, or the television, or the wi-fi. It's an interesting job because I meet people from a lot of different countries.

Speaker 2 My job is OK. I work from Monday to Saturday, so I don't have a lot of free time. I help people find what they want. Some customers are very difficult!

Speaker 3 I work at lunch time and in the evening. I like my job, but the day is very long and I finish work late at night. Saturday is a difficult day because there are a lot of people in the restaurant.

Speaker 4 I don't like my job because I'm in my car all day. I take people where they want to go. Some people talk to me but most of them talk on their mobile phones.

Speaker 5 I work at a different time every week. One week I work from six o'clock in the morning until three o'clock in the afternoon. The next week I work from ten o'clock in the morning until seven o'clock at night. I work for a company that makes cars. My job isn't very interesting, but I really like the people I work with.

6 B))

B Well, actually, I never drink coffee or tea. I usually have orange juice in the morning.

A What do you do after breakfast?

B I usually read the news on my laptop and listen to music.

A Do you do housework?

B Sometimes, but not usually. I usually do the housework during the week.

A What do you do in the afternoon?

B Nothing special. I sometimes go to the gym.

A What do you do in the evening?

B I always go out with my friends. We usually go to a bar or a club and dance!

7 A))

A Sarah, do you play any sports?

B Yes, I do. I love sport.

A Which sports do you play?

B I play hockey and tennis.

A Ice hockey?

B No, normal hockey.

A Oh. How often do you play?

B I play hockey a lot because I'm in a team. We train for two hours on Tuesdays and Thursdays, and then we have a match every Saturday.

A Are you good at it?

B I'm OK, but it's a good team with some very good players in it.

A Do you usually win?

B Sometimes, but not always. But it's fun.

A What about tennis? How often do you play?

D Actually, I was in Mexico.
I Mexico? Were you on holiday?
D Well, I was on holiday for three weeks, and then I worked in a small village for a month.
I Who did you go with?
D I travelled with my husband. My daughter wanted to come, but she was at university at the time.
I How did you travel there?
D First, we visited my parents in New York, and then we travelled to Mexico City by plane. After that, we travelled around the country by bus.

- I Where was the farm?
D It was on the Pacific coast of Mexico, in a state called Guerrero.
I Where did you stay?
D We stayed in a house in the village. It had three bedrooms and it was perfect for us.
I And you worked on the farm?
D Yes, and we also worked at the local school. I helped the children with their English, and my husband helped with maths.
I Did you like Mexico?
D Yes, I did. The people were very friendly, and the food was delicious.
I Did you earn a lot of money while you were there?
D No, we didn't work for money. This was voluntary work.
I What a fantastic experience, Debbie!
D Yes, it was. It was great!

- A Hi Ellie. How was your day?
B Well it didn't start very well.
A Oh, why was that?
B Well, I didn't walk to work today, because it was raining. I decided to get the bus. But the bus was late, I waited for half an hour, and then it arrived, but it was really slow, so in the end I was late for work.
A Oh. Was it a problem?
B Well, I had a lot of work when I got to the office. The morning was really busy. I didn't have lunch. I didn't have time.
A Did you have anything to eat?
B I had some fruit at my desk. I'm really hungry now.
A How was your afternoon?

- A So, how was the match on Saturday? I watched it on the TV. I thought it was a fantastic game. First half, I thought the...
- B I didn't go.
- A What do you mean you didn't go?
- B Well. It's a long story. I did something really stupid.
- A What did you do?
- B Well, I decided to look on the internet for tickets. And I found some on a website. They were a good price, so I bought two tickets with my debit card.
- A Then what happened?
- B Well, when I paid for them, I got this strange message. It said that there were some technical problems with the website and it wasn't possible for them to send me the tickets electronically. But they said it wasn't a problem. They said a representative from the company would meet me next to the ticket office outside the stadium at seven o'clock, an hour before the match, and give me the tickets in person.
- A What did you do?
- B I went to the stadium at 7.00. But the ticket office was closed. Nobody was there. No representative. No tickets.
- A Oh no. So you didn't see the match.
- B No, and I paid £100 for two tickets. I can't believe I was so stupid.

12B))

- Speaker 1 What am I doing next weekend? Well, I'm playing basketball on Saturday, but the match is in a town about 200 kilometres away. We're going by bus, and we're leaving very early in the morning because we're playing at 11 o'clock. I hope we win!
- Speaker 2 It's my birthday next weekend, so I'm having a barbecue at my house on Saturday evening. My family is going to be there – my sister and her husband and my brother and his wife with their children, and some of my friends are coming, too. I hope it doesn't rain!
- Speaker 3 We're going away next weekend – to Paris! We're flying on Friday after work and we aren't coming back until Monday night because it's a long weekend. We're staying in a hotel in the centre of Paris. I'm very excited because it's my first visit to France.
- Speaker 4 Next weekend? We're going to a concert on Friday night. A new band is playing – they're called The Spitfires and they're really good. We're getting the train into town and then we're meeting some friends. We're going to the concert together.
- Speaker 5 Next weekend is a very busy weekend for me because I'm leaving home. I'm starting university at the end of September and I'm renting a flat with some other students. I'm a bit nervous about it. I don't know what it's like living away from home.
